

GCAMWIL STUDIO OF ART

The Art of Garrett Campbell-Wilson

I create art to facilitate my personal evolution as both an individual and a part of the greater whole. My art creation is where I cultivate my thoughts, my focus, meditation, and perception. Creating art is my ritual, a daily rite which leads me to study the world around me and increases my awareness of the universe. My work is personal, however I create with the world in mind.